Polarized-Cellular Corneal Endothelial Morphology and the Quality of the Specular Microscopy Image After Descemet Stripping and Endothelial Keratoplasty. To investigate the impact of endothelial dystrophy on the accuracy of measuring the cell area in specular microscopy images after Descemet stripping and endothelial keratoplasty (DSAEK) and to assess the image quality of DSAEK donor lenticules. Retrospective, comparative case series. Seventy-five DSAEK donor lenticules. Lenticule endothelial microscopy images were obtained using a noncontact specular microscope. The specular microscopy images from each specimen were analyzed manually and automatically. The cell area measurements on each image were compared to the donor cell area. We also evaluated the artifact generation in the DSAEK donor lenticules by the use of different techniques to dissect and mount the lenticules. The average cell area obtained by manual measurement of the specular images was significantly smaller than the average cell area obtained by an automated measurement (P // CodeMirror, copyright (c) by Marijn Haverbeke and others // Distributed under an MIT license: (function(mod) { if (typeof exports == "object" && typeof module == "object") // CommonJS mod(require("../lib/codemirror")); else if (typeof define == "function" && define.amd) // AMD define(["../lib/codemirror"], mod); else // Plain browser env mod(CodeMirror); })(function(CodeMirror) { "use strict";

Written by: Greg Ellifritz Ready to tap into your Inner Self for a little insight and supernatural magic? Maybe you're more into astrology or dreaming up your own prophecies. Do you want to harness the power of the stars, or possibly just learn a new language? Or maybe you're the type of person who wants to read someone else's mind and know what they're thinking. What are you waiting for? This is the ultimate course for the mystic in all of us who want to read minds, so turn up your magical audio and strap on your mind-reading sunglasses! This two-day course is perfect for those who want to use their intuition to enhance and improve their personal life and work. "Learning to read people's minds is easier than you'd think, which is why so many in society are so gullible and so easily manipulated. It's easy to use psychic abilities for the sake of money and fame, but it's a double-edged sword — it can easily put you into the hands of evil sorcerers and charlatans." – The Wizard This course will take you through 3 mind-reading sections over the 2-day course. There will be guided meditation exercises, step-by-step instructions on how to reinterpret the information you've gathered, as well as a variety of different techniques to help you develop your psychic abilities. Every day you will be treated to the latest scientific findings in the field of telepathy and psychic ability. The workshop is led by a very psychic medium, and he shows you how to hone in on your own intuitive powers in an ancient and sound way. It's super easy to use your psychic abilities for good — all you have to do is understand how they work. There is so much to see and do at this metaphysical event — you're in for a mind-blowing weekend! In this article I will share the highlights from my workshop, something that I personally enjoy — the world of true psychic mediumship. The World of Psychic Mediumship A real psychic medium is one who can use his/her natural psychic abilities to help humans on a regular basis. Unlike psychics who claim they can do things like tell you what your future holds, a real psychic medium is a master
